

Reflection

- Have the last two years ever felt like one tumultuous “plague” to you? Why or why not?
- What surprised you about God’s character in this week’s readings? How can God be equal parts steady and plague-smiting at the very same time?
- How is God’s pattern quite consistent not only in these readings, but also in the Bible as a whole and in your life story?
- What is God inviting your soul into this week, because of your encounter with these chapters in Exodus?